

In style this winter... with Aimée Hay

Catering for curves

FOR the curvy and confident woman there is a store just for you in the scenic village of Cobargo.

Sugar Mumma's Plus caters for the more voluptuous woman, from size 12 upwards, at reasonable prices.

Priding itself on "fashion that fits", Sugar Mumma's Plus carries a range of clothing and accessories.

Long cotton shirts are a best seller at the moment and come in many different colours.

They can be dressed up or dressed down, depending on the occasion, and suit all body types.

Scarves are huge this season and can also dress up an outfit and wedge boots have made a come back this winter.

Long style tunic top over tights, with boots, are all the rage, as is animal print clothing.

Sugar Mumma's Plus has RTM brand clothing instore - a 100 per cent ALL Australian owned and manufactured company.

Especially for winter, Sugar Mumma's Plus has ordered a range of thermal underwear so customers can really rug up against the winter chill.

Why not see for yourself what the store has available in its winter range and in doing so take advantage of all the summer/autumn items now on sale.

Fashionably trendy

LIVING in a country area such as the Bega Valley needn't mean followers of fashion miss out on the latest styles and trends, as frockonhome keeps the fashion conscious up-to-date with the latest in this always changing field.

From casual to glam, frockonhome supplies a fabulous range of shoes and clothing - including Levi curve ID jeans - and accessories.

Proprietor Nicole Little said winter fashion this year features lots of layering, boots in a huge array of styles, more neutrals and Khaki colours.

In stock now are navy high school pants for the winter season.

The main brands and popular sellers at frockonhome include Living Doll, Azuki, Shilla, Levis, Sass, Lipsy, Therapy Shoes, Inniu Shoes and Indy C.

Bardot is a new brand which will be introduced from July and Love and Anarchy will be carried from August.

According to Nicole maxi skirts, flowing fabrics and sheers and colour blocking are coming in to fashion.

If you are looking to update your winter wardrobe then call in to frockonhome where Nicole and her friendly staff will be happy to help you make the right choices from the store's extensive and latest fashion wear.

Also available from the store are diffusers and candles that add ambience to your home environment and make great gift ideas for family and friends.
